

Employee Handbook & HR Policy

Fictional Company: NovaTech Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

Document Version: 2026.1 Effective Date: 1 January 2026

This fictional document is created for testing a Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG) HR Policy Assistant. It is not a real company policy.

1. Working Hours and Attendance

- Standard working hours are Monday to Friday, 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, including a one-hour lunch break.
- Employees are expected to record attendance through the company attendance system each working day.
- Employees arriving more than 30 minutes after their scheduled start time should inform their reporting manager.
- Employees who are absent without prior approval should notify their manager as soon as reasonably possible.
- Three consecutive unexplained absences may be escalated to the HR department for review.

2. Annual and Casual Leave

- Full-time employees receive 18 days of annual paid leave per calendar year.
- Employees receive 6 days of casual leave per calendar year. Casual leave should normally be requested at least one working day in advance.
- Unused annual leave may be carried forward up to a maximum of 12 days into the following calendar year.
- Casual leave cannot be carried forward unless specifically approved by HR.
- Leave requests are submitted through the employee portal and require manager approval.

3. Sick Leave

- Employees receive 10 days of paid sick leave per calendar year.
- For sick leave of more than two consecutive working days, HR may request reasonable medical documentation.
- Sick leave should be reported to the reporting manager before the employee's normal start time whenever practical.
- Sick leave cannot be exchanged for cash.

4. Remote Work and Work From Home

- Eligible employees may work remotely for up to 2 days per week with manager approval.

- Employees working remotely must remain reachable during normal working hours.
- Remote work must be performed from a secure location and company devices must use approved security controls.
- Employees may not use public computers to access confidential company systems.
- Extended remote work beyond 2 days per week requires written approval from the department head.

5. Overtime and Compensatory Time

- Overtime should be approved by the reporting manager before the additional work is performed whenever possible.
- Eligible employees working more than 40 hours in a standard work week may receive compensatory time or overtime payment according to applicable company rules.
- Employees should record approved overtime in the employee portal.
- Unapproved overtime may not qualify for compensation.

6. Maternity and Paternity Leave

- Eligible employees may receive maternity leave in accordance with applicable Indian law and company policy.
- Employees should contact HR as early as practical to plan maternity leave and transition responsibilities.
- Eligible new fathers may receive 10 working days of paid paternity leave, to be taken within 90 days of the child's birth or adoption.
- Supporting documentation may be requested by HR for leave administration.

7. Travel and Expense Reimbursement

- Business travel must normally be approved before booking transportation or accommodation.
- Employees should use company-approved travel providers when available.
- Reasonable transportation, accommodation and meal expenses incurred for approved business travel may be reimbursed.
- Expense claims should be submitted within 15 calendar days after returning from business travel.
- Original receipts or valid digital receipts should be attached to expense claims.
- Personal entertainment expenses are not reimbursable.

8. Performance Reviews and Promotions

- Employees normally receive a formal performance review twice per year.
- Performance reviews consider role objectives, quality of work, collaboration, reliability and professional development.

- Promotion decisions consider demonstrated performance, role requirements, business needs and available positions.
- Employees may request a performance discussion with their manager at any time.

9. Code of Conduct and Workplace Behavior

- Employees are expected to treat colleagues, customers and business partners respectfully.
- Harassment, discrimination, bullying, threats and retaliation are prohibited.
- Confidential company information must not be disclosed to unauthorized persons.
- Employees should report serious workplace concerns to HR or through the company's grievance channel.
- Violations may result in corrective action in accordance with company procedures.

10. Information Security and Company Devices

- Company laptops must be protected using the assigned password and approved security software.
- Employees must not share passwords or authentication codes with another person.
- Multi-factor authentication is required for systems designated by the IT department.
- Lost or stolen company devices must be reported to IT within 4 hours of discovery.
- Confidential files should only be stored in approved company storage systems.

11. Grievance and Complaint Procedure

- Employees may raise workplace concerns with their reporting manager, HR business partner or designated grievance channel.
- Complaints should include sufficient factual information for HR to investigate.
- HR will acknowledge a formal complaint within 3 working days where practical.
- Employees who raise concerns in good faith should not face retaliation for making the report.
- Information relating to an investigation will be shared only with people who need it for the process.

12. Notice Period and Separation

- The standard notice period for confirmed employees is 60 calendar days unless the employment contract specifies otherwise.
- Employees must submit resignation through the official HR system or by written notice to their manager and HR.
- During the notice period, employees are expected to complete knowledge transfer and return company property.
- HR may approve an earlier release based on business requirements and applicable employment terms.

- Final settlement is processed after required exit formalities are completed.

RAG Test Questions

- How many annual paid leave days does a full-time employee receive?
- How many casual leave days are provided each year?
- How many annual leave days can be carried forward?
- How many days per week can an eligible employee work remotely?
- What should an employee do if a company laptop is lost?
- How many working days of paternity leave are provided?
- Within how many days should business travel expenses be submitted?
- How often are formal performance reviews normally conducted?
- What is the standard notice period for confirmed employees?
- Can casual leave be carried forward?
- Who can an employee contact to raise a workplace grievance?
- What is the standard working schedule?